heard Miss Katherine Oliver at Assembly hall last evening in her impersona tion of S. R. Crockett's beautiful story, "The Play Actress." Miss Oliver is per-haps the most talented reader who has visited Salt Lake in a long time, and wisited Sait Laske in a long time, and as she has made a special study of Scotch literature, particularly excels in it. "The Play Actress" is a story of more than usual interest, and of great pathes. Miss Oliver has the power of showing the emotional elements in a way which is in no way affected or theatrical, and is at the same time most vivid. She moves her audience to tears by her simple directness, and this alone gives proof of her artistic ability. Summed up, Miss Oliver is a reader of great strength and charm, and is a revelation to many who have nitherto seen nothing in the monologue form of entertainment. Her next rectial will be given at Assembly hall on Monday evening, when the subject will be Barrie's "Little Minister."
